Textbook

“Math 220 Course Pack“, Fall 2017 edition, by Ross Geoghegan and Regina Brewster (at bookstore for about $45; earlier editions are okay.)

You can also use any sources you like to aid in your learning. There are helpful videos on the course website.

Exams and Grading

Test 1(in class)	Sept 27 (tentative)	20%
Test 2 (in class)	TBD	20%
Test 3 (in class)	TBD	20%
Final Exam (2 hrs)	TBD	30%
Discretionary		10%

The “Discretionary“ points is based on quizzes, homework, attendance and participation.

It is also noteworthy that, according to the University policy, if you miss 25% or more of the lectures throughout the semester, the instructor will be at liberty to fail you, even if your performance in the course is otherwise satisfactory.

Math Help Rooms

Rooms 231, 233, 234, 235, and 236 in Whitney Hall will be available Monday through Friday from 9:00 to 5:00 for tutoring. Please consult <https://www2.math.binghamton.edu/p/helprooms/startforupdateschedules>.

Calculators and Other Electronic Devices

Calculators are not to be used on quizzes or tests. They may be useful for homework assignments. Using any electronic device, including phone or calculator watches during quizzes or tests will result in a grade of zero.

Academic Honesty

Cheating on exams or quizzes will result in failure in the course and possible suspension from the University.
