

MathFest 2005 Panel: How to Apply for Jobs
Panel sponsored by
MAA Committee on Graduate Students
Young Mathematicians Network

Panelists

1. Professor Sharon Clark, Pepperdine University,
Sharon.Clarke@pepperdine.edu
2. Professor Jim Freeman, Cornell College, jfreeman@cornellcollege.edu
3. Professor Luise Kappe, Binghamton University, State University of New York, menger@math.binghamton.edu

Resources for the Academic Job Search

1. Thomas Hull, Michael A. Jones, and Diana M. Thomas, "Interviewing for a Job in Academia", Notices of the AMS, November 1998, pp.1353-1357
2. Thomas Hull, "Hunting for a job in math academia: Job interview advice", <http://www.merrimack.edu/~thull/job/jobint.html>
3. AMS employment articles Web site: <http://www.ams.org/employment/>
4. Annalisa Cranell, "Applying for jobs: Advice from the front", Notices of the AMS (1992), pp.560-563
5. The Young Mathematicians Network <http://concerns.youngmath.net/>
6. Ed Aboufadel, "Job Search Diary", <http://www.maa.org/features/ed/jobsearch.html>
7. Ed Aboufadel, "Ed Aboufadel's Diaries", <http://www.maa.org/features/ed/diaries.html>
8. Thomas W. Rishel, "The Academic Job Search in Mathematics", <http://www.ams.org/employment/academic-job-search.html>
9. James H. Freeman, "Observations on the Hiring Process", <http://people.cornellcollege.edu/jfreeman/MathFest2005Hiring.html>