

[BTW: I remarked that I thought it was an average rate of change question. I was wrong. They didn't go on to ask what

$\frac{dP}{dt} \div 3$ was. My mistake.]

Think: why is the rate of income higher in 3 summers? Because population grows and its rate affects the other rate. Hence, the rates are related.

Good question from JJ!