The Department of Mathematical Sciences at Binghamton University invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of assistant/associate professor beginning Fall 2020. Priority will be given to applicants in Topology (or a closely related area) at associate/advanced assistant professor level, who would complement and strengthen our existing research group, but qualified applicants in Statistics, Algebra, or Analysis at the assistant professor level will also receive full consideration. The successful candidate must have a strong record of research and teaching. Applications from underrepresented groups and minorities are especially welcome.

The minimal qualification for this position is a doctoral degree (PhD or the equivalent) in mathematics, statistics, or closely related field. Applicants must apply electronically at http://www.mathjobs.org/jobs/jobs/14993. Application materials should include a cover letter, CV, research and teaching statements, at least three reference letters on research and one on teaching. Applications received before January 15, 2020 are guaranteed full consideration. The position will remain open until filled.

Binghamton University is a highly ranked public institution engaged in outstanding research and education.

Binghamton University is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action Employer. It is the policy of Binghamton University to provide for and promote equal opportunity employment, compensation, and other terms and conditions of employment without discrimination on the basis of sex, age, race, color, religion, disability, national origin, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, veteran or military service member status, marital status, domestic violence victim status, genetic predisposition or carrier status, or arrest and/or criminal conviction record unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification or other exception.

The department usually has several openings for the Riley Visiting Assistant Professorship. Hiring for these positions has not yet begun this year. Please check this page again later.